

It's Not The Crime – Tower of Power

I broke the law last night, committed a criminal and sexual act.
She was on top, and in this state,
That's an immediate pop.

And though I didn't get caught,
I know in my mind I committed no crime,
Still by some fluke I might be serving time,
Oh No!!

It's not the crime,
and it's not the thought,
It's not the deed,
It's if you get caught.

I got some friends who like to stay HIGH, Think of, the tax potential,
if it was legal to buy.
But instead the heat is forced,
to bust on victimless crimes,
It's a low class bust for nickels and dimes,
Oh, Oh...

It's not the crime,
and it's not the thought,
It's not the deed,
It's if you get caught.

Think of all them powerful cats and how they got that way,
'Cause they surely would not be there,
without the payoff game that's played.
And think what you would do if it was you that was in their shoes, You'd either play the game or else you'd lose,
Bad News,

It's not who's sold,
It's not who's bought,
and it's not the kickback,
It's if you get caught

It's not the crime,
it's not the thought,
and it's not the deed,
It's if you get caught.
